

Legal Case Reference Report

Query: what is tp act section 53

Top Matching References:

1. ipc_codes.txt (score ~0.48)

o such authorisation shall be given by the next-of-kin to anybody other than the chairman or the secretary, by whatever name called, of any recognised welfare institution or organisation. 1. Subs. by Act 10 of 1886, s. 2

AI Guidance (Summary):

I cannot answer your question about the contents of Section 53 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882. The provided text does not contain Section 53 of this Act. The excerpts refer to various sections of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) and amendments, but not the relevant section of the Transfer of Property Act. To find the information you need, you will have to consult a complete copy of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882.

Therefore, I cannot provide explanations, pros and cons of filing a case, practical next steps, or points to know related to Section 53 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, as the section is not included in the provided text.

Procedure (Typical First Steps):

- Draft complaint/FIR (as applicable). - Collect & organize evidence and identity documents. - Engage a local advocate; file before appropriate forum/court. - Attend hearings; comply with notices; preserve all receipts and orders.

Approx. Costs (very rough, city-dependent):

■3,000–■25,000: initial drafting & filing; ■10,000–■75,000: professional fees over early stages; Court fees vary by claim value. Seek a formal quotation from counsel.

Legal Advisor (25+ yrs): Kamal Singh — +91 9782085181